Step 3: Completing/updating the Household form and the Adult and Family Program Application Choices for your Household. The Household Form-includes email, phone number, address and gender identity.

The Choices form will ask which programs your family would like to apply for. For each choice you make a new box will open with questions for that specific program such as number of people, are you a returning family and type of cabin needed.

Both forms must be completed before you can submit your application.

The camp staff will review your application and be in touch. If accepted you will receive an email asking you to please confirm your space by registering each family member, completing additional forms, paying your deposit and choosing a payment option for the remaining balance.

If space is not available we will be in touch with waiting list information.
